Short Pitch: A portfolio showcasing the design work, video game projects, and demos from David Muraoka.

Long Pitch: Muraokad.com (or whatever the name is) will provide potential employers a platform to review the work made by David Muraoka. This site will primarily focus on showcasing completed video games, as well as a secondary marketing site for said completed games. This site will finally provide contact information for employers and fellow designers for those interested in either discussion or project work.
